

To All,

We hired Cobblestone Foods to cater our wedding reception in DUMBO, Brooklyn. We went to several tastings when we were planning our wedding (in both Manhattan and Brooklyn) and Jeremy's food was far and away the best that we had. He really understood our ideas and tailored the meal exactly to what we described.

There was a lot of back and forth leading up to the wedding, when we were honing in on exactly what we wanted; Jeremy was very kind in substituting dishes or coming up with new ideas, even up to a week before the event.

The wedding itself was really incredible. We had been a little worried that Jeremy could pull off the level of quality and detail he did at our tasting on the scale of a wedding, but everything was perfect. Not only that, but there were incredible details at the wedding that we hadn't had at the tasting. For example there was a specialty drink to start the cocktail hour that people are still talking about.

And the food itself was totally delicious. Many of the people at the wedding told us that it was the best food they had ever had at a wedding, and some people said that it was the best duck they had ever had. The family style service that we had specified was done very well and looked very classy all the way through the dinner.

And although we didn't have much time to enjoy the food at the wedding, Jeremy packed us a bag of leftovers to take on the honeymoon that were delicious.

Other than the food, I would say that the service was very well put together, polite and attentive. The drinks were well mixed and the servers kept everyone's glass full, without wasting any booze. Varick, our captain for the night went well beyond his responsibilities and insured that everything went smoothly, but on top of that he was just a cool guy and put us at ease.

At the center of everything though, I think that Jeremy really did an incomparable job on the reception. He was completely in control of the whole process from start to finish and was always accommodating and helpful. On top of that I think he is a very gifted chef and really understands what it means to cook good fresh food.

So, thank you very much Cobblestone Foods. We had a great wedding, largely thanks to you.

Sincerely,

James and Vivian
